Discussion Item 4 – Board Composition

Michael Meidel reiterated the number of reappointments, as mentioned above, and highlighted resignations and the decision not to fill vacancies left by Kay McKenzie in the Business sector and Samuel Kolapo in the Workforce sector. This reduces the size of the Board to 29 members, which follows Federal and State law. Manny Bhuller has decided not to extend to another term and on June 22, a replacement will be appointed since 51% Board membership is required. Scott Thomas, HR Director at a local Healthcare facility, is the nominee who will come before the BCC for appointment. Michael Ramsey will be replaced by another representative of St Petersburg College, of which public higher education is required. Michael Meidel announced his resignation due to retirement and will be replaced by Kevin Knutsen, the Interim Director of Economic Development, for this required Economic Development seat on the Board. Michael Meidel suggested that the reappointment of the 13 Board members be added to the Board agenda in May for approval. Barclay Harless agreed with this suggestion and indicated that Michael Meidel's input on these items will be missed. Michael Meidel indicated that he has trained up staff members to cover these items moving forward.

Discussion Item 5 – Board Member Attendance

The committee discussed board attendance, which was enclosed in the packet. Jennifer Brackney indicated that there were no concerns regarding board attendance. Reiterated that more than 3 consecutive absences were reviewed, and of the few instances seen, Andrea Cianek and John Howell, were specific in nature due to conflicting appointments and will not be a problem in the future. Committee attendance is well, and Jennifer Brackney will outreach to Chris Owen regarding the Workforce Solutions Committee. Barclay Harless asked if the attendance record is provided at each Board meeting for updates. Jennifer Brackney confirmed that it is part of the Committee and Board review on a regular basis. Michael Meidel reiterated that John Howell's position with Vocational Rehabilitation is a required position by Federal Law. Jennifer Brackney stated that John Howell is the representative on all of the area's local workforce boards and is overextended in his LWDB representation at the moment but is a great supporter and partner to the organization.
